

Visit to iTransform Station of Konica Minolta on 27 May 2017 (Saturday)

Dear Members,

We have organized a visit to the iTransform Station – BPO centres of Konica Minolta (“KM”) on 27 May 2017. Since 2014, KM initiated the BACKME Programme (Business And Community Konica Minolta Enterprise) with BPO centres in Chai Wan, to provide one-stop business process outsourcing services with social missions to help younger generation by providing them with appropriate working environment and career development opportunities. The visit will enable participants to see for themselves how KM can help to transfer the customers’ document management and chores to their experts, whilst providing a good platform to the young generation to develop their career and enjoy the pleasant working atmosphere.
